

radical film network festival & unconference

29th april to 2nd may 2016

Film Hub
Scotland

stuc

Radical Film Cultures: A Passion for Social Change.

Over the May Day bank holiday weekend (29th April to 2nd May) Glasgow is hosting the 2016 Radical Film Network Festival and Unconference.

A city-wide film festival will bring together the collective efforts of over thirty Scottish-based organisations engaged with radical film culture. Around thirty screenings and events will highlight Glasgow's vibrant alternative film culture and wide-ranging social movements, in venues from Bridgeton to Govan, the Southside to the West End.

Responding to these activities, a public Unconference at the University of Glasgow has been organised which is open to anyone who wants to discuss and debate fresh ideas that can shape alternative film culture and foster radical change, in Scotland and beyond.

RADICAL FILM
NETWORK

rfnscotland.org

@RFNScotland

/RadicalFilmNetworkScotland

Progress is impossible without change and those who change their minds can change anything.